

Narrative Writing Rubric

Excellent	Great	Good
My story's beginning is very exciting (I might have used one of the story leads I learned). My story uses a LOT of details to tell who, when, and where at the beginning. My story's main character is round (lots of details). My story tells what is happening (plot) and it is all about ONE event. My story has dialogue and I used better words for said and I put in quotation marks (" "). My story uses show not tell to describe the feeling that wraps up my story or my story ends with a question. My story has an excellent title because it matched what my story is about.	My story includes details in my beginning (not just once upon a time or one day). My story uses details to tell who, when, and where at the beginning. My story's main character is round (lots of details). My story tells what is happening (plot) and it is all about ONE event. My story has dialogue and I used better words for said. My story uses show not tell to describe the feeling that wraps up my story. My story has an excellent title because it matched what my story is about.	My story starts once upon a time or one day. My story tells who, when, and where at the beginning. My story tells what is happening (plot) and it is all about ONE event. My story has dialogue. My story uses a feeling to wrap up my story (ending). My story has an excellent title because it matched what my story is about.