

“How to” Writing Rubric

Excellent	Great	Good
I included an exciting beginning that tells the reader what my how to is about and why they need to know how to make or do whatever my topic is and maybe included a warning and the consequences if you don't follow the warning. I included a materials list that told the reader everything they needed. I included steps to tell how to make/do . . . that were very carefully explained with transition words (not just numbers) and told why I needed each material. I might have included pictures to help the reader understand the steps. I included an exciting ending that talked to the reader.	I included an exciting beginning that tells the reader what my how to is about and why they need to know how to make or do whatever my topic is and maybe included a warning. I included a materials list that told the reader everything they needed. I included steps to tell how to make/do . . . that were very carefully explained with transition words (not just numbers). I might have included pictures to help the reader understand the steps. I included an exciting ending that talked to the reader.	I included an exciting beginning that tells the reader what my how to is about and why they need to know how to make or do whatever my topic is. I included a materials list that told the reader everything they needed. I included steps to tell how to make/do . . . that were very carefully explained. I might have included pictures to help the reader understand the steps. I included an exciting ending that talked to the reader.